

Wine Spectator

2008 LE CADEAU Pinot Noir – Côte Est

91-points: Fresh and vibrant, this delivers cherry, raspberry and peppermint flavors that sing on a medium-weight frame, lingering enticingly against polished tannins. Drink now through 2018. 351-cases made. - HS

2008 LE CADEAU Pinot Noir – Diversité

91-points: This is dark, dense and distinctive for its strong floral and mineral component, hinting at violet and hot stone as the currant and blackberry fruit pushes into the long, expressive finish. Needs time to settle into itself. Best from 2012 to 2020. 270-cases made. - HS

2008 LE CADEAU Pinot Noir – Équinoxe

89-points: Firm in texture with drying tannins around a sweet core of cherry and raspberry fruit. Picks up floral and wet earth notes as the finish lingers. Drink now through 2018. 194 cases made. - HS

2008 LE CADEAU Pinot Noir – Rocheux

91-points: Fine tannins are wrapped around a refined core of cherry and herb flavors, lingering gently and persistently. Drink now through 2018. 208 cases made. - HS

2008 LE CADEAU Pinot Noir – Serendipity

93-points: Lithe, generous, and light on its feet, with wild berry, wild cherry, and mineral flavors dancing happily over the fine tannins, finishing with verve. Drink now through 2018. 68 cases made. - HS